CLASS SONG

By DORIS G. DAVIS

TUNE: LAND OF HOPE AND GLORY By EDWARD ELGAR

A Hymn of Praise

*The greatest mother of the earth, her many sons doth bear,
She giveth them all in noble birth, to serve mankind everywhere;
Oh Alma Mater, we thy sons pray this our reverent prayer,
Forever may we sing this hymn, lest we forget thy care.*

Refrain:

*Hear our voices praise thee, thou who made us strong,
Loud with fervor raise we, our triumphant song,
Thou thy sons doth nourish, thou doth make them free;
May thou ever flourish, hear our prayer for thee,
May thou ever flourish through eternity.*

*Thou art known by thy mighty works, throughout land and sea,
For thou art one who never shirks from deeds for humanity;
So Alma Mater kind and true, who gave us all our needs,
Forever may we sing this hymn, lest we forget thy deeds.*

Refrain:

*Hear our voices praise thee, thou who made us strong,
Loud with fervor raise we, our triumphant song,
Thou hast willed us courage, thou hast made us free,
Long live dear old Shaw University through eternity,
Hear the prayer we offer, CLASS OF FORTY-THREE.*

Dedication to Classmates

In 1939 nearly 200 freshmen entered Shaw. By now over one half of them have dropped out for various reasons.

We know for a fact that several volunteered for the armed forces, and others were drafted. To those of you who would have graduated with us, we pause to wish you much luck in the work you are doing.

SHE WALKS IN BEAUTY

*She walks in the beauty of faith
Her eyes are set on the goal;
Though hindrance comes
She struggles on
A fearless, unconquerable soul.*

*She walks in the beauty of hope
Better, brighter days ahead;
Though dark clouds hover
When the rain is over
She marches on, triumphant, unafraid.*

*She walks in the beauty of Love
Toiling in the heat and the cold;
Her life she gives—
For God she lives—
Her worth is not measured in gold.*
